HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL – FOR ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY

Bernacke at paragraph 4 (ECF 184-2, Pg.ID# 5070-71), identification of the individuals authorized to enter into any agreement reached by the governments regarding the repatriation of Iraqi Nationals, and the date each individual engaged in the “ongoing diplomatic negotiations.”

RESPONSE:

Respondent DHS objects to this interrogatory to the extent it calls for information relied upon by Michael Bernacke in his declaration, ECF 184-2, because DHS did not participate in the drafting or review of that declaration. DHS objects to this interrogatory, as the “name, title and department of the government (for both Iraq and the United States) of each individual negotiating the Iraqi Agreement” do not affect the terms of any agreement, to the extent one exists. Subject to the foregoing privileges, Respondent DHS did not participate in “negotiations” but did participate in discussions with participants from the Government of the United States and Iraq on June 23, 2017, December 5, 2017 and January 9, 2018.

King; (Former) Deputy Counterterrorism Coordinator for Policy Thomas Warrick; Principal Director and Senior Advisor, Information Sharing Policy Michael Scardaville; (Former) Director for Middle East, Africa, South Asia Kenneth Holt; Deputy Director for Middle East, Africa, South Asia Alexander Kisselburg; John Olson, Middle East Team, Travel and Immigration Branch. Representatives from the U.S. Department of State, Office of Iraq Affairs, including Kris Clark, Political Officer and David Nobles, Deputy Director also were present for the meeting. On January 9, 2018, the U.S. Government primarily was represented by John Schultz, Deputy Assistant Director, Enforcement and Removal Operations and Michael Bernacke, Unit Chief, Enforcement and Removal Operations, for Respondent ICE. Representatives from Respondent DHS attended, including (Former) Director for Middle East, Africa, South Asia Kenneth Holt; and Deputy Director for Middle East, Africa, South Asia Alexander Kisselburg.
